

INTERMEDIATE AIR OPERATIONS

April 1-5, 2002
Spokane, Washington

Lead Instructor: Bob Delmonte

Course Coordinator: Renee Beams (541) 504-7342

Nominations Due: November 1, 2001

Selections Posted on Web: December 3, 2001

TARGET GROUP

- Those individuals who are at the Strike Team Leader/Division Group Supervisor level. It is these individuals who work with aircraft on incidents and need to know the operational capabilities and resources available, to perform the position.

TRAINEE PREREQUISITES

- Qualified as Strike Team Leader or Task Force Leader

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- To provide Type III Incident Commanders with the Aviation tools and knowledge to effectively use Aviation Resources Safely, Effectively and Efficiently on an incident.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Understand the ICS Aviation Organization.
- Understand the latest Regional Aviation Program and Direction.
- Have the ability to apply the latest aviation tools and equipment used in the Suppression of Wildfires.
- Apply the principles of safety when using aviation resources and explain the need for safety in the aviation community.
- Recognize the importance of following Aviation Regulation when using Call-When-Needed Aircraft.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the interaction among aviation organization personnel on an incident.